Mr. Louis H. Opperman,

Dear Sir:

Your favor enclosing $16.60 and returns amounting to $11.50 received for which we are very much obliged.

We have no more one dollar pieces we can sell at $1.80 but we send three at $2 each and hope you can use them at this price. They are advancing in price and we are asked $2 wholesale for them.

Respectfully

Dear Sir:

Your letter of 7 Nov

to hand: I

When I sent you my check for last lot I omitted some more of the same coins, it stands to reason that it was not at an advance price and does not look right on your part.

I ordered more in my first order, why didn't you send all at once, and as I don't think your last price fair I here with, return. The coins

3 - $1.00 and 3 — $3.00

I was willing to buy it the same time but this price is too high as it would be 4.00 for the 3. and 2.00 for 1. less 15 ℅ on the whole bill.

Yours truly.
Spurman.
